

NEWS OF HORSES AND HORSEMEN

Richmond Horse Show Association Has an Encouraging Outlook.

TYPE OF RUNABOUT HORSE

Colonel Hough to Be Here. Old Guard Wins at Latonia.

The prize list of the Richmond Horse Show, to be held during the week of October 8th-13th, is out, and shows that the sum of $10,000 or more will be offered as prize money in the fifty-five classes listed. The outlook for this, the sixth annual show, is highly encouraging, and in the matter of attendance and character of exhibits we are likely to witness an improvement even on previous efforts of the management.

Man of influence and prominence at the helm, and allied with the New York and Chicago Horse Shows, the management of these big affairs may be expected to take quite an active interest in the Richmond Horse Show.

The officers of the Association are: John T. Anderson, president; John Kerr Branch, vice-president; James T. Hyde, of New York, secretary; W. O. Warthen, assistant secretary and treasurer. Board of Directors—John T. Anderson, Harry C. Beattie, John K. Branch, Richard F. Carman, New York; Henry Palmer, A. A. Vane, Alexander Hamilton, Philadelphia; James T. Hyde, New York; Sidney C. Love, Chicago; L. M. Johnson, Roanoke, Va.; Leigh R. Page, John D. Potts, Cincinnati; O. John Spradley, New York; and Henry C. Stuart. The Executive Committee is made up of John Kerr Branch, Henry Palmer, Harry C. Beattie and John T. Anderson. Honorary vice-presidents are Major Otway S. Allen, J. R. J. Anderson, Thomas Alkinson, Stanhope Bolling, James N. Boyd, Carter W. Branch, John Stewart Brynn, Henry E. Cabell, Thomas N. Carter, A. H. Childs, Jr., Frank W. Christian, S. D. Cronshaw, C. B. Doyle, David Dunlop, W. S. Forbes, C. D. Langhorne, Col. Barton H. Grundy, E. O. Meyer, S. T. Morgan, L. T. Myers, Maj. James D. Patton, L. T. Myers, Allan Potts, R. G. Reynolds, F. W. Scott, G. W. Stevens, S. W. Travers, Henry Lee Valentine, Dr. J. A. Whitely, Judge T. Ashby, Wickham, R. Lancaster Williams, T. C. Williams, Jr., and William H. White.

Some one has described a runabout horse as "a nag with a good head, a bit of size, a bit of action all around, and a bit of speed." This aboutness is the matter in as well as may be, but it should be added that in this connection a "good head" means a "level head." A runabout horse must have plenty of sense—a quality in which, be it said, the average horse is singularly deficient. A lot of good runabout horses have been butchered by men outside the mile circle, and the owners of them. A runabout needs a lot of speed; a runabout horse does not. The latter is a sort of a cross between a business horse and a pleasure horse. He must be able to jog along between stops, and he must have sense enough to stand quietly when hitched to a machine. The runabout horse, the runabout horse, and the fewer tricks he has about him the better. No frills are required. There is good money in breeding such horses, and there is better in breaking them properly. A well-broken runabout horse should be able to do anything that a man might want him to do, and he will go along with him, an automobile meeting him and an elevated train thundering over his head. This is trying him pretty high, but it is a situation he is bound to meet, and he must be level enough in the head to behave himself in such a situation.

Col. Robert Hough, of Baltimore, familiarly known as the "Old War Horse," has been engaged as starting judge of the races at the Virginia State Fair, October 8th-13th, and during the following week he will continue in the same capacity at the North Carolina State Fair at Raleigh. Colonel Hough is a man of integrity, and his selection by the State Fair Association here will be well received by those desirous of upholding the best interests of the sport of racing. Henry Smith, of the New York State Fair, Syracuse, has been chosen as manager of the Virginia State Fair, with Charles W. Smith, of Warrenton, Va., as his assistant. The latter will be here constantly from now until after the Fair, while the manager in chief will not remove to Richmond until the opening of the Fair. Contracts have been let for building a commodious grandstand and other necessary structures, also the race-track, so that the grounds of the Virginia State Fair present quite a busy scene at this time.

The Broncho, 2:03-1-4, holder of the race record for pacing races, who was recently sold for $10,000, is by Storm-cliff, 2:13-1-4, the son of Wickett, by George Wilkes. The Alexander mare Dandel holds a time record of 2:00-1-4, but her speed has been lost. It is thought that The Broncho can beat 2:00, as evidenced by the speed she has shown in races. Stormcliff, sire of The Broncho, is a full brother to the trotting mare Lucena, 2:22-1-4, and the latter was owned for several years by W. Bailey Saunders, of this city, who drove her for the road and then raced her, as will be recalled by numbers that saw the good-looking daughter of Wickett trained and driven by W. L. Bass on Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina tracks.

Among the winners at Latonia on Monday last, the 23rd instant, was the Virginia bred horse Gould, who finished first in the steeplechase event, defeating Light, Glass Leader and others. Gould is a bay gelding, by Eolus, dam Lady Chubb, foal-bred, and about twelve years old is seemingly in as good form as for years past, evidenced by his winning races right along during the present season. Under the name of Henry Joy this gelding has been racing at a two-year-old on the flat, where he earned brackets, and later was put to jumping. Lady Grace, dam of Gould, is a daughter of Romney and Grace Darling, dam of Diablo, by Jonesboro, second dam Ninette, sister to Janet by Reeves, the sire of famous old Nina by Boston.

The week of October 8th-13th will be a notable one in Virginia's sporting annals, with the scenes laid at Richmond, the capital of the old Commonwealth. This is during the dates mentioned the Fair and race meeting of the Virginia State Fair Association will be on during the day, while at night under the glare of a myriad of electric lights the Richmond Horse Show will be in progress. Between forty and fifty thousand dollars will be distributed in prize money during the week, and Richmond will be the Mecca of attraction to many thousands of out-of-town visitors.

J. B. Andrews, of Charlottesville, Va., who has attained success as a breeder and handler of high-class horses, has purchased from New York parties, for use in the stud, the prize-winning hackney stallion Babington, 184, by Imp. Wild-fire, dam by Phaeton, son of the famous Danegelt. Mr. Andrews also owns the hackney stallions Nightingale, son of famous Matchless of London, and Imp. Young Nobelman. These horses are at Buckeyland and Oak Grove Farms, where a number of choice brood mares are also owned, along with fine cattle and other live stock.

Among the good mares that have been bred this season to Lord Chancellor, son of Dana Devil, 2:09, are Fern, 2:18-3-4, by Potomac; Sweet Lynne, trial, 2:21-1-4, by General Johnson; 2:12-1-4, Margaret Noble, a speedy daughter of Norfolk, 2:07, by Locust, by Woodburn Hambletonian; an unnamed daughter of Whittby, 2:18-1-4, from Miss Thompson, 2:20-1-2, by Toodles, Jr.; Carnation, by Climato, and four daughters of Willis, the dead son of famous old Jay Bird and Mild May, by Lumps, 2:21-1-4.

Without exercise it is impossible for the muscles of the young horses to develop, hence the necessity of a good-sized field for them to run in. If you would have horses with plenty of endurance, give them the colts to develop their muscles. BROAD ROCK.

GREAT RACERS TO MEET AT THE SPA

so as to open up, remains to be seen. The word is "Everything is all right. The Rd will be off."

Will Be Great Racing. As usual, the Bridge Whist Club, presided over by "Billy" Mackin and "Joe" Ullman last year, is ready for the first thing. Ullman may retire from the firm, in which case, sporting circles understand, Bookmaker "Al" Barry, of Chicago, will be in the fact they are the variable weather-vane, showing how the winds are going to blow for Saratoga and her glided season of sport and pleasure.

As to the horses, one has only to look down the country on the several big tracks to be run during the twenty-two days to know that the best and highest class racing of the year to date will be seen. The Sandfords, of New Amsterdams, N. Y., have a very strong stable of carpet runners, and the million-dollar carpet manufacturer, proprietor of Hurricane Stud, and a patron of the American turf for over forty years, is at the head of the eighty-seven. The stable starts in on race for the first time this year at Saratoga. Their horses are always fresh and consequently formidable. They won the Saratoga Handicap with old Caughnawaga, and the Saratoga Special with Mohawk II, in 1905. Just now they are planning to race the two-year-old two-year-old Sir William Johnson, a son of Clifford, from the good mare La Token. Mohawk II will probably start in the Saratoga Handicap. This will be the feature on opening day. The Saratoga Special starts on Saturday, August 11th, with the $25,000 Hopeful Stakes and the $50,000 Republic on August 18th. The Saratoga Cup is the feature on August 25th. Just $20,000 will be given away to the owners of winning horses during the coming meeting at the Spa.

We are going to get another glimpse of Accountant, winner of the Lawrence Realization, at the end of the coming week for the Brighton Derby of one and one-half miles, for three-year-olds, to be run on Saturday, August 4th. Trainer "Matt" Allen is just now engaged giving the $5,000 son of Fillmore a turning up for the Derby. Allen is a peculiar figure of the paddock. Allen went abroad to train his horses in England and picked up the idea of wearing gloves and writing his instructions to his foreman at the stable morning glories. Before going to New York, he had Allen had charge of Gold Heals, and his horse of the 1902 season hereabouts. Now he has Accountant, an aforementioned, Olseu, Waterlight and Maxie Wit under his care. Allen is very conservative. He has not started in half a dozen races all year, preferring to send out the colors of "Diamond Jim" Brady only when they are pretty sure to float home in front with the admiring eyes of the owner in the clubhouse. Accountant is dubbed the "The Gloved Trainer," by "Sam" Hildreth, John E. Madden and other trainers. The day that Allen saddled Accountant for the Realization at Sheepshead Bay Trainer "Willie" Shields placed a bet on the account of the horse. "It's a nice day and I hope you feel as fine and that you win the race," said Shields, as he extended a hand to "Matt." Allen eagerly gripped the proffer of good friendship. Allen started as he found his glove being glued in to the palm of that of Shields. Looking down he saw himself grasping a handful of axle grease. The men do not pass the word of day now. But to get back to the coming Derby, Belmont, the colt which won the Bismarck Derby and the Brooklyn Derby is in here, his connections being determined to knock down Accountant. Both neck 124 pounds, and a horse race it will be sure enough. John E. Madden calls The Gloved Trainer light, and is dangerous, while Harry Payne Whitney is sure to start Pervoso, and James R. Keene has a good one in Kuuki, the "Jap," as the bookmakers term him. This Brighton Derby is the next big race on the calendar. It is worth $10,000 to the owners of the first three horses past the post. At this time it looks like Accountant, for he is the class and the form of the small but select field. Even money against him would be a moral prize.

PLAYERS ON THE HERMITAGE CLUB

Some Commentaries on the Men Who Compose the Team.

ALL ARE EX-COLLEGE PLAYERS

Practice Every Afternoon and Are Now Getting Into Fine Shape.

The Hermitage Golf Club baseball team, which is composed strictly of the members of the club, and can be found practicing on their own grounds each afternoon, is one of the fastest teams around the city playing amateur ball.

Some of the members that compose this team, are well known in the athletic world. The catchers are Messrs. Julian Hill who is an old-time favorite and needs no introduction to the baseball community; Mr. Randolph Cardozo known on the diamond as "Ranny," is one of the fastest little players and "run-getters" to be found anywhere, and Clyde Ratcliffe, familiarly known as "Rat," who is probably one of the best all-around players filling any position, with credit to the team, and particularly strong at the bat. Henry K. Elyson, known by every body as "Puss," is possibly one of the best amateur pitchers in the State, and is always good for two or three safe hits in each game.

Murray McGuire, an old-time favorite with the University of Virginia, is pitching great ball, and his equal is hard to be found in the amateur class. Messrs. B. D. Hotchkiss and Palmer Leigh are filling the position of short-stop.

Mr. W. S. McNeill is second baseman and captain, and probably the star player of the team, at the same time being one of the hardest workers and covering more territory on the diamond than any other second-baseman seen around Richmond.

John Harwood, who covers the third-base, is also an old-time college player, and can always be counted on as holding down this base in great style. Robert Jones, the left-hand right-fielder, can always take care of his territory without any trouble, at the same time being a good handler of the stick.

Thomas Bryan, known as "Toodles," another fielder, having recently played with the club, is not only a good fielder, but can be counted on at all times to do good work in the pitcher's box, and is quite an acquisition to the team. Mayo Binford, another fielder, is playing good ball out in the left garden, and can also be counted on for good work at most any time.

THE BIG REGATTA NEXT SATURDAY

Crews Are in First-Class Condition for the Great Event.

RACES ON BEACH PARK COURSE

Arundel Boat Club, of Baltimore, Will Race Against the Virginia.

Plans for the big regatta to be held at Beach Park, West Point, next Saturday, are about completed, and all is in readiness for the big event when the Virginia Boat Club meets the Arundel Boat Club, of Baltimore.

The Orioles, of the Monumental City, also, are out of it for several reasons, but will meet the Richmond crew at a later date, probably on September 4th.

Coach Russell says that he can safely say that this year's eight-oared crew of the Virginia Club is the fastest he has ever coached. He feels confident that the eight, and probably the single-oared skiff and four-oared skiff, will come out ahead.

Men in Fine Shape. In the eight, all the men are in fine condition, except Smith, who will probably be substituted by Shelton. Mr. Russell says that he is very well pleased with his big crew, and knows they will make an excellent showing.

The single skiff will probably be rowed by Chamberlayne, who is not only a swift but an indefatigable oarsman.

Virginia will enter two eight-oared shells and two four-oared gigs in the races, and it is hard to pick the best boat in either of the two classes.

Names of the Crews. The following are the crews of both eights and the gigs:

First eight—W. P. Shelton, Coxswain; 1. Joe Crenshaw; 2. Bob Forrest; 3. Thomas McAdams; 4. Thomas G. Crawford; 5. Davis; 6. Berkeley; 7. Sidney Smith.

Gig—1. Bob Michaels; 2. Ivan Williams; 3. C. B. Todd; 4. Christian; Coxswain, Bears.

Single skiff—Chamberlayne. Second eight—1. Meade; 2. Grant; 3. Gilman; 4. Thomas; 5. Gilman; 6. Crawford; 7. Nichols; 8. Shelton; Coxswain, Wadley.

A gold medal will be awarded to each winner of the eight-oared, and the single-oared event; and bronze medals will be awarded to the winners of the gig race, the single-oared gig, and the four-oared gig.

The prizes will be presented by Mr. Governor, of Beach Park.

The races will take place between 5 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon. It is expected that 3,000 or 4,000 people will witness the most, and several special trains will run from Richmond.

The crews will go down on Friday, staying there until the time of the meet.

TORONTO, Ont., July 28.—The Buffalo baseball team was mobbed at the close of to-day's Eastern League game here. Umpire Conahan, whose decision started the rioting, was also badly beaten by the mob.

HIGH GUN GOES TO MACLELLAND

He Makes Fine Record of Breaking Ninety-One Out of One Hundred Targets.

FLIPPEN GETS THE MEDAL

Shooting Off a Tie With Harris and MacLelland He Wins the Trophy.

The same enthusiasm that has been shown during the season at the traps of the Richmond Gun Club was manifested yesterday afternoon, with a good attendance.

MacLelland was an easy winner of the weekly medal and "high gun" honors, with the good score of 91 out of 100.

The event of all-absorbing interest was the race for the Hotel Lawrence medal, which had three men in the tie, their handicaps added, making perfect scores.

They were MacLelland, Harris and Flippen. In the shoot-off, which was a very exciting contest, as all were well bunched, one dared to pick the winner, and the tie was not decided until Flippen broke his last target, winning another leg on the much-coveted trophy.

NOTES ON THE GAME IN STATE LEAGUE

It's becoming a fad for the Lynchburg team to lose double-headers. Portsmouth recently did the same trick that Richmond did yesterday. Gradually Norfolk is slipping nearer the pennant.

Gull will likely open the game in Danville to-morrow. He believes he will be able to hold the Tobaccoists down without any run getting.

Willis has been out of the game for several weeks, and his celebrated first turn yesterday by defeating Portsmouth, Reville, for the Truckers, was wild, and the Highlanders found him easy fruit.

Stanley, that wonderful little midge of the Norfolk team, is keeping up his good work. Howard, the bullpen-paw for Danville, went down before him yesterday.

Salvo is doing just what Judge Witt said he would do—keeping them all guessing about his curves and his speed.

Hicks' drive in the ninth yesterday won for the Lawmakers one of the prettiest games seen here this season. Barrett Lee, an enthusiastic rooter, and a man who always talks for the Richmond team, pushed a lot of greenback notes in "Tug's" hands as he came in from the diamond when the game had been won. Had a Portsmouth player done the trick that Hicks did yesterday in Portsmouth, he would have been showered with money.

Laval, the man who couldn't make good with Lynchburg, and who failed to deliver the goods in Richmond, is down in South Carolina, and has pitched eleven games and won ten of them. The other one he tied up tightly. Either the company or Laval hasn't got so fast or Laval is getting better.

The Scores. Yesterday's scores follow:
Regular scores at 50 targets. 50. 10
